

Event Organised
By

CURATORS OF THIS BOOK WILL BE TALKING ABOUT

PUSSY RIOT
AND THE WIDER
IMPLICATIONS OF THEIR ACTIONS

Supported by Sociology

MANCHESTER
1824
The University of Mancheste

ALL WELCOME

ALL WELCOME

LOCATION: Friday 25 October, Room 3.204, University Place,
University of Manchester, Oxford Road

TIME: 2-5pm Support Action 5.30pm - University Place

Pussy Riot undoubtedly ushered in a new era of feminism and political freedom with their protest acts. The dialogue so explosively ignited by Nadya, Masha and Katya continues in 'Let's Start A Pussy Riot'. The book asks how we can move forward and unite different voices and generations to create an inspiring dialogue.

This book, published by Rough Trade Books, has been created in collaboration with Pussy Riot and links together the events leading up to and after the group's arrest and the themes that these courageous women fight for – feminism, LGBTQ rights, freedom of speech and the environment.

Contributors include Judy Chicago, Jón Gnarr, Antony Hegarty, Bianca Casady, Sarah Lucas, Bobby Conn, Robyn, Kim Gordon, Lucky Dragons, Billy Childish...